Councilmen to Check Up Tree Menace

TRIMMING of eucalyptus trees on Fourth street will replace the earlier drastic cutting ordered by the city council in a recent meeting as a safety measure urged by residents living beneath the so-called menace of falling limbs. The city council will meet as a committee of the whole today to investigate the matter under guidance of experts.

The Carmel Pine Cone was awarded local printing as the official Carmel paper at figures consistent with the last year's work. Sewer maintenance by the Sanitary District was recommended, and considerable questioning was aimed at City Attorney Argyll Campbell regarding technical points of taking over the business, he being attorney for both the city and the sanitary board.

A resolution was passed to name the present city park Devendorf Plaza, in honor of the man who made Carmel possible, and public and official recognition was made of the project. The Peninsula airport was allowed to go at discretion of the council, and it appears at present that Monterey will carry the responsibility of installing and maintaining this venture, to be located somewhere east of the present trap-shooting range at Del Monte. Routine business covered the rest of the evening with adjournment that will tie in with Armistice Day observances.

PETITION TO PROBATE LOST WILL IS FILED

Probate of the lost or destroyed will of Genevieve Astley of Carmel, who died September 21 is asked in a petition filed in Salinas this week. The petition sets forth that the deceased left a will dated July 5, 1933, which was supposed to be in the possession of the woman's husband, Norman Astley, 80. It is asserted that the will named Astley beneficiary of an estate consisting of property in Carmel to a value not to exceed $10,000.

In event of Astley's death all the property was to go to Nellie Irene Murphy, the middle-aged caretaker of the couple who married Astley a week after the death of his wife. Mrs. Astley's death was attributed by physicians to pneumonia.

HOST TO COLLECTORS

Mr. and Mrs. Slevin will be hosts this week-end to several prominent stamp collectors who attended the recent San Francisco display where stamps from all over the world were on view. They are Paul Duffer, Justus Stahn and Henri Meuth, of San Francisco, and R. C. Klemin, of New York City.

CARMEL LEGION POST INSTALLED Sunset School Observes Armistice Day

Formal installation of officers in the new Carmel American Legion Post No. 512 took place Monday night at Legion-Manzanita hall under guidance of District Commander Al Clark, of Soledad, and he presented the post with its temporary charter. The degree team from Willow Glen initiated more than two dozen new members, bringing the total membership close to 100.

Officers installed were James Regan, commander; Major Wm. H. Landers, first vice-commander; Capt. Pat Hudgins, second vice-commander; Lee Gottfried, adjutant; Fred McIndoe, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. Melvin R. Dorsett, chaplain; and Gabe Burnett, finance officer.

Stirring addresses were made by visiting officials and outstanding local veterans. Refreshments and dancing followed, music being furnished by Al Knight's orchestra consisting of himself, George Baston, Nick Moratta and Ken Arnkhiel. Among guest groups were the Women's Auxiliary and the Monterey Post No. 51 of Canadian War Veterans headed by James Burgess, acting commander.

Mrs. Lorouette Is Called By Death

Carmel mourns the passing of Mrs. Antoinette Larouette, wife of Henry Larouette, business man and former councilman, following a lingering illness. For 24 years the Larouettes resided here and Mrs. Larouette was connected with many civic enterprises including activity in the pioneer Manzanita club.

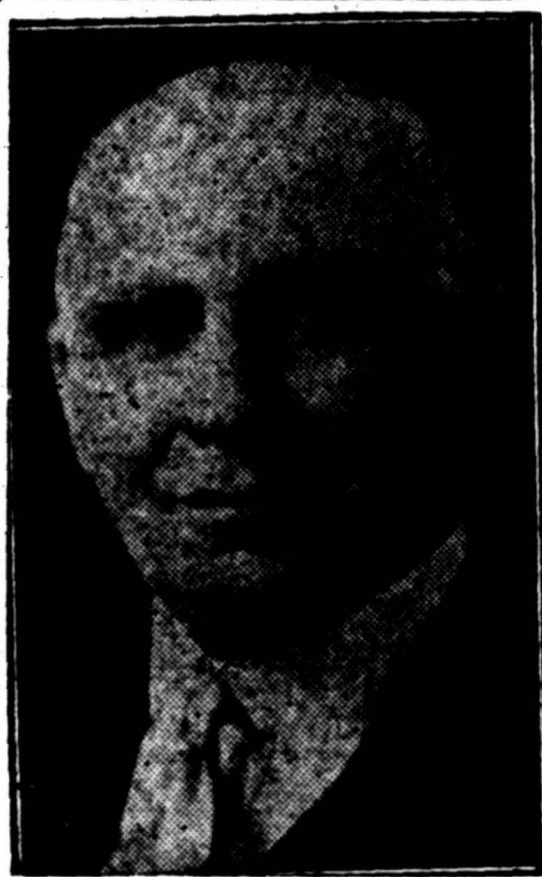

Services in charge of J. K. Paul were conducted in Oakland Monday at the Chapel of the Chimes. A native of San Jose, she is survived by her husband, and by a son, Otto J. Roehling, of San Francisco, and a daughter, Mrs. John Tennis, of Carmel, as well as by grandchildren Eugene and Robert Roehling, of San Francisco, and a niece, Ms. Eda Kelsey, of Carmel.

Carmel Chapter Red Cross Drive To Begin Monday

Volunteer workers of the Carmel Red Cross chapter will begin the annual drive for funds here next Monday, November 12. A fund of $4,000 is the objective, as it has been estimated that less than this amount will not suffice to carry on welfare work in Carmel, meeting the expected heavier winter demands on the Red Cross. Aid which was obtainable from no other source has during the past two years, been given to depression sufferers in Carmel and its environs through the local Red Cross. This solicitation represents the community's effort to care for its own.

SUNDAY PROGRAM AT LEGION HALL

Armistice Day will be observed in Carmel at American Legion Hall on Dolores street just below Eighth, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon. Commander James Regan, of the new post, has invited many local groups to participate, including the peninsula Elks, Masons and other fraternal groups, Canadian war veterans, city officials, boy and girl scouts, and outstanding community officials.

Many will go over the hill to see comrades in Monterey and Pacific Grove and the presidio, and naturally the Peninsula Legion post will be a gathering center. The presidio will observe a brief silence at 11 o'clock, and owing to it being Sunday there will be certain semi-official observances on Monday, which is a holiday.

Canadian veterans of Post 51 will join with their American friends in fitting reunions.

Many Propositions Receive Yes Votes

California voters were in a "yes" mood when they came to the amendments on the ballot Tuesday. Fifteen of the propositions passed; eight failed. The propositions quickly drop into oblivion after election, sometimes even before the vote is tabulated. Some of them are never heard of for years afterward, and sometimes the people supposed to enforce them never hear of them at all.

Propositions carried were 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 20, 21, and 23. Among these are included the veterans loan act, liquor control, civil service, and emergency relief bond issue. The budget regulation act which educational forces were fighting, passed.

Failing to pass were 9, chiropractors; 11, elective board of education, favored by the school people; 13, local option; 15, 17, naturopathic act; 18, the water bill; 19 and 22, latter making possible consolidation of political subdivisions.

Sixteenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice which ended the World War on November 11, 1918, will be observed in Carmel by the closing of banks and city offices, and will be officially commemorated by a program at Sunset school in which Carmel Legion Post will participate. As Armistice Day falls on Sunday, and Monday is the official holiday on which the school will be closed, the exercises were held today.

All pupils at the school and a few adults composed the audience which gathered at 2:50 today for a program which opened with a salute to the flag and singing of the national anthem. "The Bugle Song" and "Onward America" were presented by the seventh grade, which was also responsible for the playlet in keeping with the spirit of the day, "Candles of Remembrance."

James Regan, commander of the newly organized Carmel legion post, was principal speaker of the day, giving a stirring address based on the meaning which Armistice Day holds for all legionnaires.

Armistice Day was also the theme of the new school paper, Sunset Glow, which was issued today for the first time. News gathering, typing, stenciling and mimeographing of the paper were all performed by the students.

MANUEL PEREIRA RESIGNS

Manuel Pereira, chief of the Carmel bureau of fire prevention, submitted his resignation at a recent meeting of the Carmel volunteer fire department, and it was accepted. A position with a Monterey cannery will take his full time and he could not continue with the local duties which he has been fulfilling for some months.

Woman's Club Considers Building Permanent Home

Whether to take steps to own its own home is the important question to which members of the Carmel Woman's Club devoted themselves at the November meeting, Monday afternoon, to the exclusion of the program which is usually included in the monthly general session. Mrs. H. S. Nye, club president, presided at the meeting, which called out a large attendance and was known as "Club Day."

The various possessions of the club were on display, including the three silver cups of the garden section. In her introductory talk Mrs. Nye traced the history of the club from its foundation in 1926, and set forth its aims in the future. A long discussion followed, with various club members taking the floor to present their views for and against the proposition of procuring a permanent home for the club. Various available sites and buildings were discussed and the pros and cons of the question well threshed out.

The majority appeared to feel strongly that the time is approaching when the club should have a home of its own, not necessarily a large or expensive building or one to impose a burden upon the members. The type of building favored is one which would be simple, yet of sufficient beauty and dignity to be an addition to the village, and in which the club might feel justly proud.

No definite action was taken, but Mrs. Nye will appoint a committee to investigate the matter further and bring it up at some future meeting. At the tea hour a special point was made of introducing new members. Mrs. Ira Miller and Mrs. J. F. Kreps presided at the tea tables, being assisted by Mrs. Kent Clark, Mrs. James L. Cockburn, Mrs. John E. Abernethy, Miss Elizabeth Mascord and Mrs. Morris K. Wild.

THE state and county election was a field day for candidates supported by The Carmel Pine Cone. Governor Frank F. Merriam and his running mate George Hatfield were out in front for their respective offices, while Anthony Brazil carried off honors for himself in being elected district attorney as did Russell W. Giles for the office of treasurer. Frank Oyer, candidate for the office of constable made a commendable race and nosed out his opponent George L. Kinloch.

Both Brazil and Giles are Pacific Grove residents who had their first fling at politics. Both were given good majorities in Carmel. Oyer, likewise a peninsula resident got his winning strength from this territory. Kinloch ran his best in Monterey, but the majority piled up in Carmel and East Monterey defeated him.

In a brief statement to The Carmel Pine Cone today Mr. Brazil expressed appreciation for the support given him in Carmel.

"I'm grateful to the voters of Carmel for the vote they gave me. I have made no promises other than to be fair and square with everyone and to do the work of the office to the best of my ability. I am going to make every effort to show the voters of Monterey county that their confidence in me has not been misplaced."

Candidates who had no opposition or who were opposed by men who had no real chance to win received good complimentary votes on the peninsula. Included among these were U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Congressman J. J. McGrath, Assemblyman Ellis E. Patterson, John C. Corbett, member of the board of equalization, and several others.

DALTON CCC INSTRUCTOR

Gather Around the Piano for Some Old-Time Songs, Please

By THELMA B. MILLER

At the risk of seeming to carry a family discussion in the "public prints," I have asked for a little space to answer Perry Newberry's question about a certain type of concert which he thinks Miss Denny and Miss Watrous might intersperse among their excellent offerings. He referred to the type of songs our mothers and fathers used to sing.

My theory is that he does not really want to go and sit in a hall and listen to someone else perform those old ballads which have dear associations for so many of us. What he really wants to do is gather around the piano with a few congenial spirits in someone's living-room and sing those songs himself. Or if he refuses to sing, to listen to some good "parlour" voices. Those songs were written for the home, for voices not quite good enough for the concert stage. They serve their real purpose when they draw people together to make music, not just to listen to it.

That was a good old custom that we remember from our childhood, for the family and the friends who dropped in for the evening or on a Sunday afternoon, to sing together around the piano. In those days there seemed to be plenty of pretty good voices among our friends;—are they all singing only for the radio now?

These songs, "Alice Where Art Thou?" "Forgotten," yes, and even "A Perfect Day" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile," which some one always asks for, were written for average voices. The range is medium, and there are no technical difficulties. We go to concerts to hear music which is beyond our scope as amateur performers, and which we have been prepared to enjoy by playing and singing the easier things.

Music has been too much professionalized in this country. Hundreds of good parlour performers have been spoiled by studying music with the idea that they must become professionals.

Music is one of the grandest hobbies there is, and boys and girls should be encouraged to study it as a source from which their whole lives will be enriched. There should be some music, other than the radio, in every home. The average family would rather hear a son or daughter play or sing some pretty tune-ful "piece" for a few minutes each evening than to hear the finest symphony in the world. But oftentimes, from the simple thing, they are led painlessly to an admiration of the greater.

Mr. and Mrs. Colden Whitman, joined by Miss Grace Ward of who have been staying at Forest East Orange, New Jersey, Mr. and Hill hotel since returning from a Mrs. Paul Dougherty who are ab-summer trip to British Columbia, sent from their home here on an are moving this week into the extended eastern trip, are at pre-Charles A. T. Cabaniss home in the sent, at Hotel New Weston in New Country Club. York City.

Beneath Sea Film On Gallery Program

Second of the adventure films at the Denny-Watrous Gallery, is "With Williamson Beneath the Sea," to be shown Friday and Saturday nights of this week, at 8 o'clock. As before, Major Hammond, the explorer will be present in person and talk through the film.

"Fangs of Death Valley" and "Like a Beaver" will be shown as "shorts" with the feature.

Children's matinee on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 will be held as before with a special talk on the picture by Major Hammond.

The showing of Williamson's "Beneath the Sea," which was photographed under the auspices of the Field Museum of Chicago, and the Death Valley picture is part of the new policy adopted by Miss Denny and Miss Watrous to show a series of adventure films, authentically taken on the spot, under the auspices of such institutions as the Smithsonian Institute, the Chicago Field Museum, etc.—a series which will be an explorers trip around the world, through sky and sea covering every known quarter of the globe, and showing native and animal life and adventure in Asia, the Andes, Africa, Labrador, etc., that have been photographed in the face of the most formidable perils.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. T. Cabaniss departed Tuesday on a motor trip to Florida, where they will remain for two months. They were accompanied, of course, by the family Boston terrier, "Lady Jane."

Zemach Dancers to Appear Nov. 16-17

Benjamin Zemach, and his dancing group made of Adele Cutler, Frieda Ginsberg, Thelma Babitch, Ella Seruvier, Beatrice Buchman, Marie Gattman, and Victoria Mousaioff, give a dance recital in the Denny-Watrous Gallery Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 16 and 17. Manuel Galea, singer and pianist, will be assisting artist.

Benjamin Zemach has devoted his very great talents to the development of a Jewish ballet, and in this unique field he has attracted wide comment and praise.

Zemach's program will include such numbers as "Jacob's Dream," "A Chapter from Psalms," "Ruth," "My Grandchild Will Marry," etc. The spiritual struggle of the Hebrew, the humor and the music and the drama of the Palestinian folk songs, and the modern dance.

Metabolic Work Continues at Community Hospital

TO clarify questions which have arisen since the reopening of Peninsula Community Hospital with enlarged facilities, the hospital board is calling attention to the fact that the metabolic work for the purpose of which Grace Deere Velle originally created the foundation, is still being actively carried on. Famous for the completeness of its laboratory and other equipment for diagnosis and treatment of ailments arising from metabolic disturbances, the hospital has and does attract people from all parts of the country for this cause alone. The addition of a surgery and maternity ward enlarged the hospital's scope of usefulness without limiting its service in the field of internal medicine, hospital board members indicate.

Dr. Kocher In Charge

Dr. R. A. Kocher is at the head of the metabolic department of the hospital, and is in the unique position of being the only Peninsula doctor who devotes himself solely to internal medicine.

Besides its fine laboratory, equipped to make all manner of analyses of body fluids and tissues, the hospital has the most modern x-ray and physiotherapy equipment, and the always essential "basal" machinery. This is an engine which usually affords hospital attendants a good deal of amusement, because it is so harmless and yet so many people are frightened by it. It is a simple device whose only relation to the patient is that he breathes into a tube attached to it while lying at rest on a comfortable couch. But it is big and shiny and impressive-looking, and sometimes throws patients into such a dither of dread of painful manipulations or some fearful experience that they are incapable of the very thing that is wanted of them; relaxation and quiet breathing.

Detects Deficiency

The "basal" machine helps the diagnostician to determine the rate at which the normal destruction and rebuilding of bodily tissues are progressing. It is valuable in detecting thyroid deficiency; an uncomfortable condition in which the victim is peevish, lackluster, abnormally chilly, and often obese. If the rate of metabolism is abnormally low, the physician knows that the thyroid is not secreting enough of the precious "thyroxin" without which "life burns as a smoky flame," and is scarcely worth the living. If on the other hand, the rate is too high, the thyroid is working overtime and may exhaust itself, or grow abnormally, and become manifest as a goiter. In this condition the patient may be nervous, excitable; driven beyond his energy.

This is just one example of the many interesting things which Dr. Kocher is able to find out about the inward workings of people from the excellent facilities of the community hospital's metabolic equipment.

GEYER ON H. S. BOARD

Harold C. Geyer of Monterey has been appointed to the board of trustees of the Monterey Union High School to succeed Mrs. J. P. Sandholdt, resigned. B. H. Schulte of Carmel valley, is chairman.

Heron Exhibit at Stanford

OPENING Sunday in Stanford Art Gallery will be a "one man show" by Edith Heron of Monterey. Miss Heron has sent between thirty and forty of her best water-colors to the exhibit, which will continue until November 28. Expecting to put on not more than one show this year, this is her third, following an exhibit in June at the Oakland auditorium and July and August showing at the Adobe Book and Gift shop in Monterey.

While including many of her best studies inspired by Monterey Peninsula, Miss Heron's display will also stand as a memento to her recent fourteen-months trip through Panama Canal and to Europe, painting as she went; going ashore at each port touched by the boat to record in her particular medium the vivid impressions aroused by unfamiliar, picturesque surroundings.

LETTUCE GROWERS

SUIT TO QUIET TITLE

Suit to quiet title to lots in Carmel has been filed in Salinas by the Carmel Development Company naming Florence Leidig, R. C. Storie and others as defendants.

Frank and Edna Sheridan and John have gone to Hollywood for some months. Frank is working in a number of pictures, and John will enter Hollywood high school, where he should prove an addition to the pitching staff of their baseball team.

Comic Opera Pleases Big Crowd; Three Nights More

A COMIC OPERA that is highly amusing and at times very beautiful is the offering of the Monterey Peninsula Opera Association in its presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan favorite, "Yeomen of the Guard" this week-end at the Carmel Playhouse. The show opened last night playing to a large enthusiastic audience which included a number who declared this among the best amateur productions to be presented in Carmel during recent years.

Hand in Hand

With the music directed by Arthur Gundersen, the stage direction by Gertrude Bardarson, and the details of production handled by various members of the association, this show far excels the average amateur production, notwithstanding the fact that "Yeomen of the Guard" is the most difficult of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, and in spite of the limited number of available singers on the Peninsula.

Comedy and pathos go hand in hand. Moments of tenderness are fleeting, however since the authors could not long refrain from running into satire or humor. A variety of scenes follow in quick succession, with more than the usual number devoted to dialogue that arouses gales of laughter. Holding all the varied bits together, is a background, lovely in its massive simplicity, portraying a seventeenth century prison.

The Characters

Against this background we see the lovesick Phoebe, the dismal sour-faced jailor, the merryman of infinite wit, Jack Point with the strolling minstrel, Elsie Maynard, an old witch of a prison keeper, Dame Caruthers, a gallant hero who is to lose his head, Colonel Fairfax, and a number of other characters who carry the plot to its climax, an ending which is at once happy and tragic. And throughout we have glimpses of the villagers and the Yeomen of the Guard who in their sixteenth century costumes lend a note of brilliance against the somber background.

Taking the leading roles are J. Rosslyn Jones, Elton Canner, Joseph Clague, Verne C. Williams, Gordon Knoles, Robert Bratt, James D. Wilson, J. H. McAlpine, Noble Barter, Stewart Jones, Frances Harper Schreiman, Anna Marie Baer, Dorothy Greene and Ethel Irvine.

In the Ensemble

In the ensemble are Howard Neubauer, Fred Ballam, Scott Douglass, Hollis Thomas, George Smith, Maloy Estill, Andrew Sessink, Charles French, Noble Barter, Charlotte Page, Marie Bushell, Mary Jones, Edith Reader, Ruth Beaumont, Florence M. Hay, Luella Clemens, Glenna Peck, Pearl Thomas, Verna Lillard, Edith Gates, Myrtle Stoddard, Florence Thrift, and Theda Shoemaker.

In the orchestra are Mildred S. Wright, Mrs. R. Jones, Frances Maas, Dora Ryan, Geraldine O'Connell, Jean Crouch, George Ross, Percy Lee and Muriel Doolittle.

SUNSET STUDENT SPEAKS

Homer Levinson, president of the Sunset school student body, was a speaker at the Monterey Peninsula Breakfast Club Tuesday morning. He touched briefly on the significance of education and its increasing importance as a factor in the development of civilization. He was introduced by O. W. Bardarson, principal, whose guest he was at the breakfast.

English Gardens Subject of Woman's Club Talk

SPEAKING extemporaneously and drawing upon first-hand material, which she collected while abroad, Mrs. Herbert Wycoff, chairman of the garden section of the Watsonville Woman's club, was responsible for one of the most interesting meetings to date of the Carmel Woman's club garden section. The lovely garden and home of Mrs. James L. Cockburn at Seventh and Carmelo was the setting for the event.

Because English gardens are generally regarded as the finest in the world they were chosen for discussion by the speaker. They fulfill those true requisites; expressing the personalities of their owners, thereby attaining infinite variety; and holding to an ideal of naturalness.

The fineness of the public gardens, such as Hampton Court, Kew and Kensington was mentioned, and also the beautiful war memorial gardens of the cathedral towns of Canterbury, Winchester and Salisbury, made in memory of their soldier dead.

The rose, that aristocrat of the garden, is always given the dignity of formal treatment, Mrs. Wycoff said, and is usually planned so that the drawing-room windows will command a view of the rose-garden. Plantings close to the house are usually formal, while the wide herbaceous borders beyond are natural and informal.

Among specific places mentioned by the speaker was Brockhurst, an estate in Sussex, with England's finest rock garden, containing over 7000 specimens; magnificent rhododendrons and a heather garden.

In contrast was a more modest place in Winchester, where the thatch-roofed house dates back to 1600 and the garden is small and intimate. The lavish gardens of the Duke of Westminster, requiring the services of fifty gardeners, lose the intimacy of a private garden.

In England, Mrs. Wycoff said, the planning and care of the garden falls under the province of the man of the household, rather than being the specific interest of the woman, as is more often the case in this country. The English lady trips about her garden, suitably hatted and gowned, and enjoys and cuts the flowers only.

Miss Anne Grant of Carmel also contributed to the program; a comprehensive paper on the history, cultivation and propagation of chrysanthemums. She also prepared a display of some of these gorgeous autumn beauties.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary at 90

Celebrating the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Thomas Sumner Greene, her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. C. Sumner Greene entertained Sunday afternoon at their home here. Mrs. Greene crossed the garden to greet her guests upon the arm of her son, presenting a striking picture in which an outward evidence of family background and tradition mingled with the tranquil beauty which emerges from a long life well and fully lived.

A descendant of Increase Mather, that fiery Puritan pastor, Mrs. Greene is "pure New England" in her father's line, while on the distaff side is a heritage of Southern blood. During the War of the Rebellion she was an ardent unionist, though the family home was in Barboursville, then in Virginia but now a part of West Virginia. She had the exciting experience of crossing the border many times to take messages to leaders of the Federal forces, and Grant, Sherman and other northern generals were familiar visitors of the family.

Among the guests, who showered the honoree with cut flowers, beautiful potted plants and candy, were included Miss Emeline Harrington, Miss Eva Belle Adams, Miss Charlotte Waterman, Mrs. John W. Dickinson, Miss Agnes Williston, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Rev. and Mrs. Austin B. Chinn, Mrs. Mallett, and Miss Margaret Clark.

Ride to Knowledge on Book Trail, Invitation for Week

"RIDE the book trail to knowledge and adventure" is the invitation which is being extended to young people throughout the country during Book Week, November 11 to 17. This annual event is one which boys and girls have responded to with a vengeance, and which is credited by many librarians with not only raising the literary standards of the younger generation, but actually influencing beneficially the output of publishers.

Carmel library and Sunset school are cooperating as usual in local observance of this "week". As the theme this year is "hobby books", which have been appearing recently in numbers and variety, a hobby show is being arranged by these two institutions. It will be in the form of a contest, entries to which were received all this week at the school. The best of the entries will go to make up the display at the library next week.

There will be prizes too; awarded jointly by the library and Sunset P.T. A. A book dealing with the winning hobbies will be given to each older boy and girl and each younger boy and girl adjudged to have the most interesting and constructive hobby.

The big feature of this week is always the display of the new autumn collection of children's books at the library. Carefully hidden away until Book Week, the new collection is "sprung" on the youthful reading public at this time. It is something the boys and girls look forward to from year to year; the day that the Book Week collection goes on display there is usually a waiting line of children at the door when the library opens. The volumes do not begin to circulate until the closing Saturday of Book Week.

Grown-ups also take a special interest in this display; it is a good mart in which to select volumes for Christmas gifts.

The library has usually spent about $200 a year for children's books. This year, with a smaller budget, Miss Hortense Berry, the librarian, found to her pleasure that the books are enough cheaper so that there will be almost as many new ones as ever. And she says they equal and surpass the standards of former years for beauty of illustrations and general interest. She is the only one who knows; the "secret" is being well-guarded!

BUILDING PLANNED FOR SERA FORCE IN SALINAS

Monterey county board of supervisors has given its official approval to a plan proposed by SERA Director Fred R. Bechdolt, whereby a building to house SERA and county welfare offices will be built in Salinas. The proposed structure would cost about $20,000, would be built at state expense, and would revert to the county in event the SERA should cease to have need for quarters. Passage of the $24,000,000 relief bond issue is thought to bring closer the probability that the structure will actually be built George Marion, Carmel motion picture and stage actor, is now on location at Arrowhead, playing a character role as a miner in a picture being made by Paramount. Mrs. Marion is living in Hollywood during her husband's absence. They expect to return here in about two weeks.

1. When does 1/2 Off begin to apply?

With the bill for electricity used after the December, 1934, meter reading.

2. Who gets it?

All domestic and commercial lighting customers who have been customers at the same location of last year.

3. How do I benefit?

Perhaps you have been using electricity sparingly. Now you can use TWO DOLLARS more of electricity each month than last year and it will only cost ONE DOLLAR.

4. Must I add new appliances?

NO. However, each new electric appliance you install that would normally take EXTRA Electricity at full rate can now operate at half cost.

5. How do I apply?

No action on your part is necessary. The rate automatically applies to all who qualify.

One-half Off means this: That the amount of money by which your bill for any one month at same location exceeds your bill for the corresponding month a year back will be discounted 50%.

6. How does the rate work?

Your monthly bill will show that the normal cost for any electricity used in any month in excess of amount used in corresponding month of previous year has been cut in half.

7. Can you give an example?

Say your bill in January, 1934, was $3.00. You install an electric refrigerator, an electric heater and a new lamp. Your January, 1935, bill is $6.00. You have EXTRA Electricity to the amount of $3.00. You get a 1/2 Off discount of $1.50. The bill you pay in January, 1935, will therefore be only $4.50.

8. Does electric equipment installed through a Federal Housing Act loan give me this bargain rate?

Yes. This rate also applies to the use of additional equipment you install. This should be an extra inducement to you for obtaining a F. H. A. loan. See any banker.

9. How long will 1/2 Off be in effect?

Throughout our system for 12 months ending with the meter reading ending December, 1935.

10. Why was this 1/2 Off rate made?

To see if a bargain rate would cause a more liberal use of electricity, and take up part of the large power surplus in Northern California.

IMPORTANT!

It is hoped and expected by this company that this 1/2 Off rate will so stimulate use of electricity as to justify a reduction in the regular schedule.

"Native's Return" Not Just Another Travel Book

MUCH more than "just another travel book" is Louis Adamic's "Native's Return," according to Mrs. Carl G. Rendtorff who gave an intensive review of this valuable work before the book section of the Woman's club Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Rendtorff made a number of general comments on the book before going into it for more intensive discussion. The style, she found was warm, vivid and human. While Adamic is thoroughly American, having come to this country as a lad of fourteen, from his home in what is now Jugo-Slavia, he occasionally betrays his foreign origin by the use of slang which an English speaking person would not use in quite that way. Educated in the United States, he returned to his home land in 1932 on a Guggenheim fellowship, believing that his purpose was to write a book dealing with the American scene. But he found himself so moved by his rediscovery of his home and his people that the book became one about Jugo-Slavia, its old traditional customs, its people, its history, and its current political economy.

The writer himself was surprised to find his country-men so well-versed in international affairs; cultured, highly literate, and of course full of questions about the United States. He was surprised to find himself a cynosure of attention from the press of his country, but gradually he understood that by quoting him and telling, without editorial comment, the story of his life, they were able to put across ideas which rigid press censorship forbade their expressing in any other way.

The central, purely "travel" portion of the book, Mrs. Rendtorff thought might well have been com-

Mirovitch Concert In L. A. on Nov. 16

Alfred Mirovitch, who spent most of September in Carmel preparing for a concert tour, is playing at Philharmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles the evening of November 16. This is one of his big concerts of the year, as his home and master class are in Los Angeles, where he has an enthusiastic following.

Mirovitch was so charmed with Carmel, and found it so easy to work here, that among his plans for the future are the establishment of a summer master class here, an idea which has already aroused enthusiasm in many of his Southern California students.

pressed a bit, to the advantage of the third section which deals in penetrating style with the "state of the nation." Always corruptly governed, Jugo-Slavia or Serbia, which name a greater part of the country bore until the close of the European War, was in no better state under the dictatorship of Alexander, most recent ruler of the country to die violently. Most interesting modern figure in the harried country was Stephen Raditch, Croat peasant parliamentary leader, who became a sort of messiah to the mass of his countrymen, and after whose death, as the result of a brawl in the parliamentary chambers, the house was abolished. His life, and even more his death, made the peasants politically conscious as they had never been before.

The depth of feeling for his native land aroused in Adamic by his visit offered Mrs. Rendtorff an illustration of a favorite thesis of her own: that loyalty to a country can be taught, but patriotism is inborn and cannot be acquired.

Judge George Wood has been confined to his home lately with an injured back, but he reports that the ailment is temporary and that he will shortly resume his duties as judge of the city court.

Charles Guth, Carmel traffic officer, has gone to Pasadena on his vacation, there to join Mrs. Guth who has been in the south some time with relatives.

Mail Delivery Plans Get Little Response

Four petitions in all are reported to have been circulated for signatures requesting house-to-house mail delivery in Carmel, and public response to the idea has been slow. It appears that inhabitants of this village had rather go to the post office and "endure" the so-called "hardships" of getting mail than to have paved sidewalks and bright street lights, as stated in the petitions, to facilitate delivery.

The idea that Carmel has outgrown the early days which made it distinctive does not seem to set well with people.

AUTUMN FESTIVAL SOON

With Christmas only six weeks away, a timely event is the Autumn Festival of Community Church Guild, which will be held on November 23. There will be aprons, pillow slips, fancy work of all kinds, and many good things to eat for sale. The children will enjoy the fish pond and candy counter. ## THE STATE IS SAVED

Once again the state and the nation have been saved; California from the Democrats, and the United States from the Republicans, so everyone should be satisfied. At least we're glad it is over.

California stands out conspicuously as one of the last strongholds of the Republican party as a result of this election, with a governor and senator to its credit. Possibly the GOP takes scant comfort in the election of Hiram Johnson, always a hard man for the party leaders to hold in line, and at present high in favor with the Democratic administration. Merriam's victory was more a "beat Sinclair" movement than a true endorsement of the Republican party.

The Republican party has a magnificent opportunity in California. There is a decided trend to the left in this country; not toward radicalism, but perhaps toward an enlightened liberalism. The Republican party is the conservative voice in our national affairs. If the GOP shows that it is flexible enough to adopt progressive measures in California, it will do much to restore waning public confidence in the party which reigned, with minor interruptions, from the Civil War until 1932. If the Republican party fails to give California honest and progressive government during the next four years, it may never stage a national come-back.

The fact that the press of the state preserved almost a united front behind Merriam undoubtedly was the deciding factor in his election.

Newspapermen are opportunists; they are also a cynical crew. Over the underground wires from paper to paper a confidential word is running. "Sure, we supported Merriam," it says in effect. "We whooped it up for all we were worth. And don't forget, we're not going to let the state administration make monkeys of us. We're going to be right on the job to see that these glittering campaign promises are kept. If they are not, Mr. Merriam will here from us again."

STUDENTS WAKING UP

It doesn't do to be too worried by student ruckuses at U. C., expulsion of "radicals" at U. C. L. A. and other manifestations of the yeast working among the younger generation. It is all to the good that college students are taking an interest in the affairs of their country at last. In Europe and Latin America the students have been politically conscious for a long time, they are a force to be reckoned with by the politicians.

One of the reasons that the United States has had so many politicians and so few statesmen is that bright young men and women have traditionally taken no interest in government. They turned their talents to business. Now that there seems to be little to interest them in that line, they are turning their attention to the affairs of the nation. It's a healthy sign, and radicalism is a normal phase of youth.

YELLOW BUTTERFLIES

From beyond the blue loom of mountains;
 Following a liquid silver thread
 Running in a mold of purple shadows;
 Fluttering high above my head,
 A cloud of yellow butterflies
 Swept on where the morning lies.

Twirling dream-flower petals sparkling
 In a world of things as they are;
 On the breath of bewitching tropic water:
 Their flame-colored wings from far
 Have brought the light of love whose beams
 Hold the gift of endless dreams.

Never again will I remember
 The world of things as they are,
 I have followed the yellow butterflies
 Home to their vivid star
 And mine the land that no death knows,
 Where spring lives on and the red rose blows.

—Annice Calland

WOOD WIND

High in pines and cedars
 I hear the wind like rain,
 Making weird night music,
 Blended peace and pain.

Wind at night is wistful,
 A tender, piteous thing;
 Yet, potent beyond its Strength,
 It makes the great trees sing.

—Elinor Lennen

HURRICANE

The sea stood up on his hind legs, and fell on us,
 Rain, like a swarm of stilettos, impaled us.
 The wind, a thousand hounds unleashed,
 Tore madly, with fangs adrip, through a night of beautiful terror.

But the little white house stood firm,
 And the little wife, a little whiter, faced the morning,
 When, to shame us for our gallant dream of rescue
 The hounds crawled into their lairs,
 The knives, shattered, formed pools of blue reflection,
 And the sea crept back to his bed and dozed.

Only the broken chestnut sapling fence,
 Crackled into kindling,
 And the wind-riven vines and the char-brown bushes
 And the yellowed grass,
 Remembered there has passed this way
 A warning of the frailty of life,
 Of the imminence of eternity.

—Benjamin Musser

ANSWER

My questions find their answer
 In the never-answered sea;
 Inquiring, certain only
 Of its uncertainty.

HOODLUMS' HOLIDAY

Sense of the fitness of things is too often lacking from American observance of national holidays. While Hallowe'en is no sense one of the major national holidays, being rooted in a background of European folk-lore, it is an occasion allowing a perfectly natural outlet for youthful spirits. A certain amount of innocent mischief is expected and permissible, but there is nothing in the traditions of the night to warrant malicious destruction of property or personal violence.

The disturbance at Carmel theater on Hallowe'en night was disgraceful. It was nothing but a cheap rough-house and had nothing to do with observing Hallowe'en, but probably would not have occurred if the boys had not been abroad because of the holiday. It is understood that perpetrators of the hoodlum violence are known, and that the police propose to do nothing about it. Broken-down fences, gates wrenched from their hinges, benches along the cliff overlooking the ocean not merely removed but broken to bits;—this is the manner in which young ruffians of Carmel observed the evening.

It has been reported that special deputies appointed for the evening "looked the other way and laughed" at efforts of the police to preserve order. Where was Company A on Hallowe'en night? Here was a normal outlet for their enthusiasm to protect their homes, or was it all dissipated on the Red Scare?

It may be questioned whether the parents of youths let loose to roam the village on mischief bent are not rather more than morally responsible for damage done. There is too much of this turning of children out to amuse themselves at the expense of the community. If a few more old-fashioned Hallowe'en parties had been arranged in the homes, under proper supervision, or even some sort of community party planned, if the individual parents refused to be bothered, there would be less unpleasant aftermath.

THE PENINSULA AIRPORT

The Monterey Peninsula is to have an airport of its own. The city of Monterey has taken upon itself to provide one. With the aid of SERA workers and SERA funds Monterey will put the airport in shape and then if Pacific Grove and Carmel care to share in the rental they may do so on a basis of prorated expense according to population.

The former plan which asked Carmel to defray one third of the expense in putting the landing field in shape and a third of the rental was abandoned. This is well. Carmel does not need an airport. However, if it gives Monterey or anyone else, for that matter a better feeling, the small amount asked of Carmel will not be begrudged by the citizens here. After all, aviation is here to stay, and as long as the airport is kept "over the hill," no one will kick.

There has been no new type of crime in 5,000 years, says a Carmel writer of crime stories. Why should there be when there are plenty of fresh victims for all of the old types?

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT

ERNST BACON was introduced to Peninsular patrons of music by means of a large tea at the home of Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous Sunday afternoon; in the evening he met the group of amateur musicians whose performances he will guide and coordinate during the season to come. He is the new director of the Monterey Peninsula Orchestra, and Carmelites found him an agreeable young man to meet; brown eyes, a shock of brown hair and an easy manner of talking which discloses a range of interests outside the field in which he excels.

He had a small misadventure on the way to the tea. Driving a borrowed car, he disregarded the warning of the gasoline gauge which read "empty" because his own car gives that warning in a friendly fashion, some time before it need be heeded. But this one really was empty and refused to negotiate the steep climb out of the gully across the north end of Dolores. While the guests chatted and waited in the house at the top of the hill, the guest of honor trudged back to the village for gasoline.

Mr. Bacon tried the mettle of his orchestra on a reading of the Beethoven fourth symphony at the initial rehearsal Sunday evening, showing that under his guidance they will have the pleasure of exploring the vaster reaches of musical literature.

For the present he is "commuting" between Carmel and San Francisco for the weekly rehearsals. His major job is conducting the orchestra at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He composes as well as conducts, and arrived at the baton via the piano.

"HOLY CITY" TO BE REPEATED

An ambitious undertaking for a music study group, of which the peninsular Musical Art club is justly proud, was the presentation last Sunday evening of the oratorio "The Holy City" by Alfred Gaul. The program will be repeated on Sunday, November 18, at Monterey Presbyterian church. Methodist church in Pacific Grove was the setting for the performance of last Sunday.

Miss Estelle Koch, director of the Methodist choir, produced the Oratorio, assisted by Mrs. Carol Moore Turner at the organ. Soloists were Andrew Sessink, tenor; Mrs. Bess Ward, contralto; Ray Faulkner, bass. Miss Beatrice Harris has rehearsed the soprano solo, but was prevented by illness from appearing. A special trio was composed of Elmarie Hyler, Katherine Hayes and Bess Ward.

Included in the chorus were: Sopranos: Beatrice Harris, Elmarie Hyler, Elsie Norton, Amelia G. Howe, Lucile Roberts, Mrs. George H. Cowie, Mrs. Frank Eatwell, Mrs. William Ten Eyck, Nellie Rettig, Fannie J. Peters, Mrs. Elmer Fitzsimmons.

Altos: Ida Rose, Katherine Hayes, Bess E. Ward, Betty Draper, Nellie Ferguson, Constance Messenger, Mrs. E. E. Hurlbert, Mrs. E. E. Vincent, Ethel Reader, Agnes Duekenfeld.

Tenors: Elgin C. Hurlbert, W. Frank Gloeckner, R. L. Harris, Andrew Sessink, Arthur Fogg, Rev. Albert E. Clay.

Basses: Roy Faulkner, Albert Campbell, Edward C. Hopkins, Glenn Wolfer, C. Whitfield, L. C. Fisher, George Moser, John Draper and Stewart Jones.

WEDDING CELEBRATED

Celebrating the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph G. E. Hanke called a group of friends together for an impromptu tea and cocktail party last Friday afternoon at their home in Hatton Fields. No advance plans were made, and as usual in such cases, the party was more fun for both hosts and guests than if carefully "staged."

A week-end guest of Miss Hortense Berry and Miss Jessie Berry was their niece, Miss Jane Hillebrand of Palo Alto.

Mrs. Charles Meadows will be here from Berkeley this weekend, as a guest of Mrs. Harry Durfee.

First of a series of whist parties awarded. The whist games are open to the public on payment of a small admission fee.

Mrs. Arthur Daley of Los Angeles and Mrs. Harry Durfee of Carmel spent the week in San Francisco as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Emmel of the National Broadcasting Company.

Miss Lydia Frellsen and Miss Mary Jane Russell are enjoying a brief vacation in Carmel, after which they will go to Miss Russell's home in Red Bluff, where Miss Frellsen will remain during an extended leave of absence from her duties at Peralta Hospital in Oakland. Both Miss Russell and Miss Frellsen own property in Carmel valley, where they expect to build in the future.

Departing for a two weeks motor trip, Captain and Mrs. Pat Hudgins will visit Arizona and New Mexico before returning to their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Slevin were visitors in San Francisco over last week-end.

Mrs. James King Steele and Mrs. Frank Freyer, both of San Francisco, were week-end guests of Mrs. C. H. Cornwallis-Stevenson.

Following their recent marriage in Reno, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Louis are making their home in Carmel. Mrs. Louis was formerly Mrs. Rena Abbe.

Richard Arlen, Jobyna Ralston, his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Bing Crosby drove up from Hollywood for a brief holiday in and about Carmel.

F. A. Huffer stopped at the Clift hotel during a recent trip to San Francisco.

Miss Marian Minges has returned to her home here after a trip which took her as far east as New York City and south to New Orleans, visiting many other places of interest en route.

Miss Ruth Ingliss entertained for a short visit last week a former Carmelite, Miss Evelyn Pattison.

At a large afternoon party at her Carmel Highlands home Judge Mary M. Bartelme presented to her friends her sister, Mrs. David Tilt, and Miss Mary Ackhoss, who were her house guests for about a fortnight.

Barney Bracisco, popular member of the P. G. & E. force, recently made a round trip to San Luis Obispo, returning with Mrs. Bracisco's mother for a short stay here.

HELEN WARE TO SPEAK AT P.-T. A.

Helen Ware, nationally known stage and cinema actress, and a local resident of whom Carmelites are particularly proud, has consented to be the speaker at next week's meeting of Sunset P.-T. A. Miss Ware's subject will be "The Use and Abuse of the Voice in our Daily Contacts." It is a subject in which she is well-versed, as she was one of the first stage personalities to be drafted by Hollywood to teach it silent stars to speak beautifully.

The meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon, rather than Monday, since the regular meeting day is a holiday this month. The session will start promptly at 3 o'clock, out of courtesy to the guest speaker. Mothers who wish to bring their small children will be able to leave them in the care of a competent attendant in the kindergarten.

The P.-T. A. is particularly interested in observance of National Education Week, November 5 to 11, and is girded to resist all encroachments upon school services and facilities.

One little-known activity of the local association is in providing a fund through which undernourished school children are provided with milk, and extra food, clothing is provided in some cases, helping children to attend school who otherwise would be unable to do so.

Student Assembly On Friday, Nov. 16

One of the most important student assemblies of the year will be held at Sunset school next Friday, November 16, when various activities of committees and officers will be reviewed. At the same time Miss Hortense Berry, librarian of Carmel library will present the awards for the Book Week hobby exhibits which are to be on display at the library all next week.

Devoe Briggs will report for the garden committee; Jeanne Weill for the clean-up committee; Hugh Smith will report on the recent paper drive; Lee Van Atta will introduce the new school publication, "Sunset Glow," which makes its initial appearance today; and Gerry Shepherd will speak on behalf of the Red Cross campaign which begins next week.

Brief comment on the purposes and objectives of intramural sports will be made by Principal O. W. Bardarson, following which award of letters and stars to members of the championship touch tackle team will be made by Lee Van Atta, student body business manager.

ORDINANCE No. 145

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTION 1 OF ORDINANCE No. 100 OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, ENTITLED, "AN ORDINANCE TO REQUIRE ALL WASTE PIPES AND HOUSE CONNECTION SEWER PIPES TO BE CONNECTED WITH THE SANITARY SEWERS OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA OR CARMEL SANITARY DISTRICT ON OR BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, 1932, AND PRESCRIBING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION HEREOF" AND REPEALING ALL ORDINANCES AND PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN SO FAR AS THEY CONFLICT WITH THIS ORDINANCE.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: That Section 1 of Ordinance No. 100 entitled as hereinabove set forth, duly adopted by the Council of the City of Carmel-BY-The-Sea on March 17, 1930, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SECTION 1: That all waste pipes and house connection sewers leading from any building, structure or outhouse in said City of Carmel-BY-The-Sea to any septic tank or cesspool in said city and all such waste pipes and house connection sewer pipes hereafter constructed be and they are hereby required, where physically practicable, to be connected with the sanitary sewer of the City of Carmel-BY-The-Sea or the Carmel Sanitary District;

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that such waste pipes and house connection sewers which are now in existence and which are now discharging waste fluids or solids or sewage into cesspools or septic tanks in said city in such a manner as not to constitute a nuisance or a menace to the public health shall be exempt from the provisions of this section until the 1st day of January, 1936.

SECTION 2: The health officer of said City shall be authorized and empowered to determine when such waste pipe or house connection sewers so discharging fluids or solids into cesspools or septic tanks constitute a nuisance or endanger the public health by preventing termination that such nuisance exists or that the public health is so endangered, the owner of the premises in question must forthwith connect such waste pipe or house connection sewer with the sanitary sewers in said City or of the Carmel Sanitary District.

SECTION 3: That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in so far as they conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4: That this Ordinance is hereby declared to be urgent and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety and shall take effect and be in force forthwith from and after its final passage and approval. The following is a statement of such urgency: Said Ordinance is immediately required to safe guard the public health by preventing overcrowding of sewerage disposal of the Carmel Sanitary District until necessary improvements and additions have been made to same."

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Council of the City of Carmel-BY-The-Sea, this 31st day of October, 1934, by the following vote: AYES: Councilmen: Thoburn, Burge, Catlin, Norton, Rowntree. NOES: Councilmen: None.

ABSENT: Councilmen: None.

APPROVED: October 31st, 1934. JAMES H. THOBURN, Mayor of said City.

ATTEST: SAIDEE VAN BROWER, City Clerk (SEAL)

I, the undersigned Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Council of said City:

Do hereby certify: That the foregoing Ordinance is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 145 of said City, which was introduced at an adjourned regular meeting of said Council on October 17th, 1934: Passed and Adopted on October 31st, 1934, by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen: Thoburn, Burge, Catlin, Norton, Rowntree. NOES: Councilmen: None.

ABSENT: Councilmen: None.

I further certify: that said Ordinance was thereupon signed by James H. Thoburn: Mayor of said City:
